

William Dunn, CPP
Director of Government Relations
American Payroll Association

As the APA's Director of Government Relations, Bill Dunn has the overall responsibility for APA's lobbying efforts on behalf of its members and the payroll community.

Bill oversees the work of the APA's Government Relations Task Force, through which the APA membership engages federal, state, and local authorities to address issues relevant to the payroll profession.

Bill also helps plan, organize, and carry out the APA's Capital Summit and Annual Congress.

Bill has more than 20 years experience writing for, teaching, and advocating on behalf of payroll professionals. He is published regularly in APA's PAYTECH magazine and in the Inside Washington column of the Payroll Currently newsletter. He also provides commentary and analysis on APA's Pay News Now! video service.

Bill earned his CPP in 1996.
