CONSULTANT

TAMMY@WILLORY.COM

Tammy Downey joined the Willory team as a Consultant in 2015. She provides Willory's consulting clients with top-notch HR and payroll services, including project management, systems implementation services, and business transformation.

She has over 25 years of experience, which includes 15 years at a large financial institution providing payroll, human resources, and systems support. Her significant project experience includes system implementations; mergers and acquisitions; year-end payroll; and HR optimization.

Tammy earned her Bachelor of Arts in Human Resources Development from Notre Dame College of Ohio and her master's in Project Management from Keller Graduate School of Management. Since 2007 she has been a Certified Payroll Professional (CPP). She is currently the past president of the Cleveland chapter of the American Payroll Association.

Tammy currently lives in Eastlake with her partner, Rick; and their dog. In her free time she enjoys spending time with her multi-generational family, turning her yard into a personal oasis, and baking delicious treats.
